APPENDIX.

Ohio General Code, Section 13430-1. When search warrant may issue.—A judge of a court or magistrate may issue warrants to search a house or place:

* * * * * * * * * * * *

5. For gaming table, establishment, device, or apparatus kept or exhibited for unlawful gaming, or to win or gain money or other property, and for money or property won by unlawful gaming.

Section 13430-7. Disposition of property before trial. —If, upon the examination, the judge or magistrate is satisfied that the offense charged with reference to the things seized, has been committed, he shall keep such things or deliver them to the sheriff of the county, there to remain until the accused is tried or the claimant's right is otherwise ascertained.

Section 13430-8. Disposition of same after trial.— If the accused is discharged by the judge or magistrate, the property or things seized shall be returned to the person in whose possession they were found, unless the possession of such articles is in itself an offense, in which case they shall be destroyed. If he is convicted, the property shall be returned to its owner, and the other things destroyed under the direction of the court.